

New Member Form

Sarum Seminar

~~Academic Year September-August~~
Half Year - February-August

Membership dues are the Sarum Seminar's only source of funds. Dues cover modest honoraria and travel reimbursement for our academic speakers, meeting room rental, newsletter printing and mailing, our share of formal Medieval Matters receptions, website hosting, and a few supplies.

Premium Membership –  Individual @ $50 for 1/2 year     Couple @ $90 for 1/2 year

Full Membership includes:

- Our engaging newsletter – “Sarum News & Views” – twice a year
- All Seminars pre-paid
- Members-Only evening featuring rare books at Stanford’s Special Collections Library
- Members’ Pot Lucks, sharing good food and lively conversation with interesting people who soon become lifelong friends
- “Medieval Matters” Public Lectures on the Stanford campus (we are co-sponsors)
- Occasional Members-Only “Medieval Matters” Receptions to chat with our distinguished lecturers, as well as Stanford faculty & graduate students
- Special email alerts from other members on musical performances, events, publications, and other topics of interest to Sarum Seminar members

Basic Membership – Individual or Couple @ $22 for 1/2 year

Basic Membership includes all the above benefits but seminars are not pre-paid – you pay a $10 drop-in fee per person for each Seminar and Medieval Matters Reception you attend

(If you expect to attend five Seminars and Receptions over the course of the year, the Full Membership is better value than this option.)
